Art and The Academy

Heard many a professor sing a part in opera or whatever, and missed some forte. Maybe I’d been depraved by boffo showbiz trash-flash, but now get it, so much later: just manifestation of academic art, cautious, paced, inner. Now wonder a few students go haywire before fully constrained.